

Robbie Jones has been an active and very supportive member of the IEC Georgia Chapter for well over 10 years. He is a strong advocate for the chapter and takes his role as a Board Member very seriously with heart and action. Over the years he has recruited over 6 Partner members to the Georgia Chapter, from distributors, to banks (Wells Fargo), to insurance companies, all of which he does business. Even though he is younger than all of the members of the Georgia Board, he is well respected and is asked for advice on jobs from more senior contractors. Most recently he formed his own company with a partner (Robbie Adams), both whom have been attending IEC conventions regularly for over 10 years. He spearheaded the onsite apprenticeship program in Savannah Georgia and is well-respected by other electrical contractors in the area. He most recently also spearheaded the 1st IEC Georgia Chapter Golf Tournament, gaining sponsors and players easily to make the event a major success both from a networking perspective and a revenue generator for the chapter. Robbie is eager to learn, humble and likable, not to mention, acts with the highest of integrity. I am very pleased to nominate Robbie Jones as one of the IEC National 2017 Emerging Leaders - I believe in the coming years, he will be a leader that will have emerged and will be willing to serve.
